

HOUSING RESOURCE LIST

Housing Transitions is a Centre County non-profit organization providing a continuum of housing services ranging from emergency shelter services for the homeless, to housing case management services for the near homeless.

Our Housing Case Manager will gladly help those who need assistance exploring housing options in Centre County. You will find information in this packet to help you get started on your housing search. Contact us with any questions.

If you have any questions about HUD Section 8 Housing Vouchers in Centre County, contact the Housing Authority at 355-6750.

If you are a landlord interested in being added to this guide or know of a rental property not listed here, please contact us at (814) 237-1944.

Respectfully,
JoAnne Pagan

PLEASE NOTE: This list is a guide aimed at providing information that can assist you in your search for housing. Housing Transitions does not rent apartments; nor do they act as an agent for any of the properties / landlords on the list. There is no guarantee of complete accuracy of the information provided; as information and situations may change. It is the responsibility of the person seeking housing to verify the listed information when contacting landlords. Please be aware that each property has their own application procedures and rules.

* Housing Transitions does not provide funding for first month's rent, security deposit, rental arrears, etc. We can, however, refer you to agencies / resources that may be able to assist with those needs. *

Questions To Ask When Contacting A Landlord / Management Office:

1. Do you have any apartments available, or any low income apartments available? If the answer is no:
 - a. When might units be available?
 - b. Do you have a waiting list?
 - c. How can I get on the waiting list?
2. How much is the rent?
3. Are any utilities included? If none are included, what is the average price for:
 - Electric
 - Heat
 - Water
 - Sewage
 - Trash
4. Do you allow pets? Do you allow service animals?
5. Are you near a bus stop and, if so, what number / route?

If you have been evicted in the past or if you, or someone who will reside with you has a felony conviction, you should also ask:

1. Do you consider people who have had an eviction?
2. Do you consider people who have had a felony conviction?
